

HM King Mohammed VI congratulates leaders of Islamic countries on New Hegira Year

Rabat - HM King Mohammed VI, Commander of the Faithful, sent congratulation messages to leaders of Islamic countries on the occasion of the New Hegira Year (Islamic New Year 1431).

In these messages, the Sovereign expressed to the Islamic countries' leaders his heartfelt wishes of health and happiness and further progress and prosperity for their brotherly peoples.

At a time when the world is facing a difficult situation, all Muslims should take advantage of this unique opportunity to mull over the message of fraternity, unity, altruism and devotion to the public interest conveyed by the Hegira (immigration) of the prophet, the Monarch said.

HM the king prayed the Almighty to crown with success the collective efforts that aims to realize "the aspirations of our peoples for greater understanding, mutual aid and complementarity in the best interest of our Islamic Ummah."
