

United Nations Alliance of Civilizations
Many cultures. One humanity.

Globalization: Words and Actions

Posted on July 1, 2012

This new report published by the American Council on Education looks into the progress of internationalization and globalization of American colleges. While many institutions perceived progress in internationalization the report highlights areas in which some colleges are lagging behind. The report covers the issues of this widening gap between the institutions which can be problematic and have consequences for the global learning outcomes >>