

United Nations Alliance of Civilizations
Many cultures. One humanity.

CFP Deadline June 30, 2011: Popular Culture and Education

Posted on June 1, 2011

Papers are invited for the Second International Conference on Popular Culture and Education, organized by the Centre for Popular Culture and Education, at the Hong Kong Institute of Education. Deadline for submission of papers is June 30, 2011, while the conference itself will be December 7-10, 2011.

The conference will bring together researchers from a variety of areas to focus on the implications of popular culture for educational practices and youth development. Papers on all aspects of popular culture and education are welcomed.

The first three days of the conference will be devoted to academic presentations. The fourth day of the conference will feature practical workshops for local teachers on popular culture and pedagogy.