

Strengthening the role of community, business and non-government organisations in cross-cultural understanding

GLOBAL DIALOGUE FOUNDATION

29 September 2011

Under the auspices of United Nations Alliance of Civilizations (UNAOC), Global Dialogue Foundation-Unity in Diversity and partners are teaming up to strengthen the role of community, business and non-government organisations in cross-cultural understanding and building inclusive societies.

Representatives from different cultures, communities, peak bodies, business, clubs and diaspora organisations, among other groups, are invited to engage in a conversation with the United Nations High Representative for the Alliance of Civilizations, H.E. Dr. Jorge Sampaio, who is also the former President of Portugal.

Date: Thursday 6th October, 2011

Time: 5:30 - 7:00 pm (meet at 5:00 pm)

Where: Northcote Town Hall, 189 High Street Northcote,

Cost: FREE

This meeting will mark the launch of the first pilot program anywhere in the world for establishing a civil society chapter (includes: communities, cultures, business, NGO's...), under the umbrella of the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations.
