"We have agreed on a series of concrete measures that need to be taken in the short, medium and long terms," Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon told a joint press conference in Bern, Switzerland, following a meeting of the executive heads of the United Nations system organizations.

The group, known as the Chief Executives Board for Coordination \(CEB\), set out a common strategy in support of developing country governance to confront the global food crisis.

The CEB also decided to establish, under the leadership of the Secretary-General, a Task Force on the Global Food Crisis to create a prioritized plan of action and coordinate its implementation. The Task Force held its first meeting on 12 May 2008
